NEEDS ADDRESSED BY THIS PROGRAM

If you have the following situations existing on your projects, you could save very substantial sums of money by sending your participants to this program.

The Project, Contract Procurement Staff...

- Often fail to understand the Full Implications of the Express and Implied Contract Terms. Often getting influenced by other party's reasonable sounding but contractually irrelevant arguments.
- They fail to recognize situations where they could be increasing liability of their employer by acting in what they mistakenly perceive to be 'fair' or 'As-per-contract'.
- They often fail to identify and properly document situations where their employer could be entitled to protection from owner, contractor, consultant or supplier claims, or, recover their own additional costs.
- They often mistakenly follow an approach that leads to wastage of time and/or resources of the Owner, Contractor, Supplier or Designer leading to lower productivity on the project for which ultimately their employer pays.
- They fail to timely settle problems/disputes that later leads to large impact claims due to waste of resources
- They often lack the "Management prospective" when taking decisions- the long term costs/benefits to their organization.

- They tend to get into conflicts with their Management, Legal or Audit Departments due to misunderstanding of the concerns of these departments.
